

LMI COLORADO

Get The Dirt

Excellent People. Excellent Clients. Excellent Results

JULY: LOOKING AHEAD

Protecting your properties through every season.

This July, our focus is helping your landscape weather Colorado's changing conditions. As temperatures rise and watering restrictions continue across many communities, our team is proactively taking measures to ensure the overall health of your properties. For more information on what to expect this summer, please reference our enclosed drought update.

HOW WE'RE RESPONDING

- Monitoring irrigation systems during every visit.
- Adjusting controller schedules to maximize watering efficiency.
- Inspecting for leaks and coverage issues.
- Protecting valuable landscape assets.
